

New Brunswick Theological Seminary

Welcoming residential and commuter students

Excellence in seminary education

Flexible schedule on two campuses

Spiritually rich and diverse community

New Brunswick Theological Seminary, founded by the Reformed Church in America in 1784, enters its 225th year as the Oldest Protestant Seminary in North America. The Seminary is an inter-cultural, ecumenical school of Christian faith, learning, and scholarship and serves a diverse student body representing 20 different denominations.

The flexible schedule on two campuses, New Jersey and New York, makes it the Seminary of choice for part-time and commuting students.

NBTS awards the following degrees:

Master of Divinity
Master of Arts
Doctor of Ministry.

The Seminary also offers a Certificate Program in Theological Studies, and continuing formation programs for church leaders.

Through the diverse faculty, staff and student body, the Seminary represents the face of today's church. We solicit your financial support for the training of the next generation of Christian leaders.

The Ralph Voorhees Scholarship

Ralph Voorhees, a former member of the Board of Trustees at New Brunswick Theological Seminary, stated at a recent meeting of the Board that:

“...no one called by God to serve others should be denied a New Brunswick Theological Seminary education because of lack of funds.”

As a result of Ralph’s passionate commitment and vision, the Seminary established a new unrestricted scholarship, named the Ralph Voorhees Scholarship, to assist in underwriting the financial needs of our students. Each and every dollar contributed to the Voorhees Scholarship is distributed to students in need in the current fiscal year to augment our other financial aid options. We invite you to become a partner in our mission through your generous support. For further information contact Cathy Proctor at cproctor@nbts.edu or at 732-247-5241 x 134.
