COURSES:

CT103 New Testament - A study of the historical, cultural, and literary contexts and an introduction to the theological themes in the writings of the New Testament.
(Professor: Rev. Charles Rix) 8:30-10:15 a.m.

CT106: Theology - “This I Believe”: Most Christians today have only a partial and inadequate understanding of the faith they confess. Christians need to gain the same confidence in declaring “This I believe.” Upon completion of this course students will gain confidence in their ability to say and know what they believe.
(Professor: Dr. Paul Fries) 10:30-12:15 p.m.

CT107: Christian Ethics - The goal of the class is to understand the nature and characteristics of contemporary Christian moral discernment.
(Professor: Dr. Hak Joon Lee) 10:30-12:15 p.m.

CT108: Servant Leadership - This course is designed to provide a paradigm for the holistic formation of God’s people through preaching, teaching, worship, fellowship, church order, caring and service. A focus on careful congregational/parish analysis and opportunities to develop ministerial skill in various practices of ministry are central to this course.
(Professor: Rev. Mayra Castañeda) 8:30-10:15 a.m.

Please feel free to call the program director at 732-247-5241, ext. 114 for more information. Application and registration forms are also available on our website: www.nbts.edu.
