

REFORMED CHURCH CENTER AT NEW BRUNSWICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

HAZEL B. GNADE FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

Please return to James Hart Brumm, Director of the Reformed Church Center, at 35 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, NJ 08901, or jbrumm@nbts.edu. The annual deadline is March 15, 2019, for the 2019-2020 academic year.

Please send us the following:

1. Your name, address, phone, and email address; fax number if you have one; and a brief c.v.
2. Please explain the nature of your project in a paragraph or two. What topic are you investigating? What sources are you using? What questions are you raising and why?
3. Why is the project significant? How do you imagine that your project will improve the understanding of the role of women in the life of the church?
4. Please describe, in a paragraph, the present state of your project. What have you done so far toward completing it? Please attach a bibliography of work you have published so far in the course of developing your project.
5. What remains to be done? What final form do you expect the project to take? When do you hope to finish it?
6. Please explain, in a paragraph, what resources you would hope to make use of at New Brunswick (as specifically as possible), and in general how you hope the Fellowship might help you accomplish the goal of completing your project.

Thank you. If you have questions about the Fellowship or the substance of your application, contact James Hart Brumm at jbrumm@nbts.edu.
