

NEW BRUNSWICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

NBTS CENTER FOR CLERGY CARE AND SAMHSA
PRESENT

Interfaith Summit on the Impact of the Opioid Crisis and the Role of Spiritual Leaders

Tuesday • August 28 @ 9:30 am–4:30 pm

Mast Chapel • NBTS • 35 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, NJ

Featured Speakers:

Dennis O. Romero, MA

Regional Administrator, DHHS Region II

Rev. Dr. Willard Ashley, SCP

Vice President of Community Relations,
Director of the Center for Clergy Care,
Associate Professor of Practical Theology, NBTS

Rev. Micah McCreary, Ph.D.

President
John Henry Livingston Professor of Theology
New Brunswick Theological Seminary

Agenda to include:

Interfaith Prayers – Diverse faith traditions offering a prayer.
(Jewish, Muslim, Christian, Hindu, and Buddhist)

How Can Congregations Be Of Help – Joe Morris – Industrial Areas Foundation;
Jon Katov, George Cope – Open Table

The day will also include participants from the Medical Community and Law Enforcement and an opportunity for round table discussions and informal networking.

Tables with information and resources will include: NBTS, SAMHSA, HRSA, OASH, HHS & ACF, Open Table, Industrial Areas Foundation, Mental Health Association of New Jersey, and the American Red Cross.

Admission is free, but registration is required. Continental breakfast and lunch will be served.

Please RSVP to Carmen.Negron@samhsa.hhs.gov