

NEW BRUNSWICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

THE SPIRIT IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST NAZISM Lecture and Exhibition

The law changes; one's conscience does not.
– Sophie Scholl (1921–1943)

The key figures in Munich's White Rose student resistance used Christ's teachings as their source of inspiration and strength. Documented in secret letters and diaries, Sophie Scholl chronicled her religious journey and "justification through faith."

Together with the White Rose Foundation
at the University of Munich
