

THE WARREN DENNIS METRO-URBAN LECTURE SERIES

The City as Classroom: Emerging Pedagogies in Urban Ministry

Tuesday • February 26 @ 3:00 pm–5:00 pm

Mast Chapel, NBTS • New Brunswick, NJ

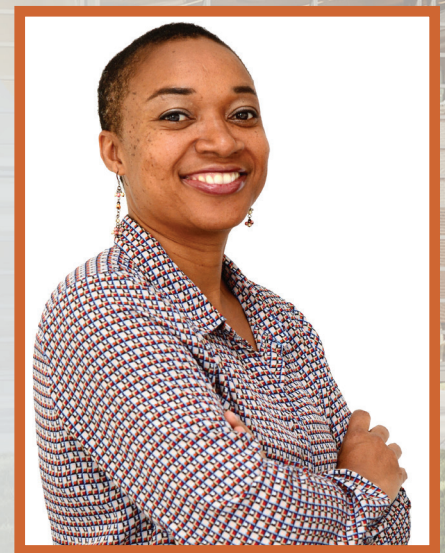

Keynote Speaker:

Janice McLean-Farrell, Ph.D.

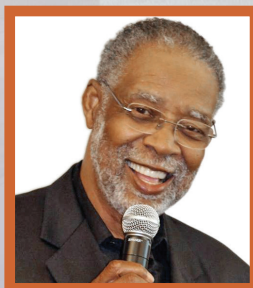

Dirk Romeyn Assistant Professor of Metro-Urban Ministry
New Brunswick Theological Seminary

How do urban pastors, practitioners and social agencies develop a vision and daily practice that are contextually relevant, historically grounded, culturally competent, pastoral in nature, global in outlook and prophetic in witness?

This lecture will address these questions and provide innovative strategies for doing ministry in 21st century metro-urban contexts.

Following the lecture will be three respondents:

Dr. Bill Levering

Senior Pastor, First Reformed Church,
Schenectady, NY

Rev. Dr. Patricia Sealy

Pastor, Mott Haven Reformed Church,
Bronx, NY

Dr. Warren Dennis

Dirk Romeyn Professor Emeritus of Metro-Urban Ministry, NBTS

Admission is free, but registration is required. Please RSVP to events@nbts.edu.
